

Moving Europe towards a sustainable and safe railway system without frontiers.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Elpida A. Epaminonda

Chief Executive Engineer, Public Works Department, Ministry of Transport, Communications and Works Republic of Cyprus

POSITION IN THE EUROPEAN UNION
AGENCY FOR RAILWAYS

Alternate for the Republic of Cyprus

WORK EXPERIENCE

- 2024- Present Chief Executive Engineer, Head of the Transportation Planning and Procurement Sector, Public Works Department, Ministry of Transport, Communications and Works
- 2017-2023 Senior Executive Engineer, Head of the Transportation Planning Section, Public Works Department, Ministry of Transport, Communications and Works
- 1996-2016 Executive Engineer, Transportation Planning Section Public Works Department, Ministry of Transport, Communications and Works.
- 1991-1996 Senior Transport Engineer, Ove Arup and Partners, London, UK
- 1987-1990 Transport Engineer, Ove Arup and Partners, London, UK

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

- 1987: MSc in Highways and Transport Engineering (The City University, London)
- 1985: BSc Honours Degree in Civil Engineering (The City University, London)

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION
MEMBERSHIPS

- Chartered Engineer and Chartered Transport Engineer – (Engineers Ireland MIEI, Chartered Institute of Logistics & Transport CMILT, The Chartered Institution of Highways & Transportation CIHT)

Moving Europe towards a sustainable and safe railway system without frontiers.

OTHER

- Ms Epaminonda has been the National Trans-European Transport Network (TEN-T) and Connecting Europe Facility (CEF) Coordinator since 2004. She has extensive experience on transport strategy and policy, design of transport infrastructure and development planning and traffic management. She is the Ministry's representative in the High Level Group (EC) on Road Safety.
-